

Dan & Nancy Nelson, Cornerstone Fellowship Ministries, AKA "Streetlight"

Dan and Nancy founded Cornerstone Fellowship Ministries over a decade ago and have pioneered creative church planting, along with street and marketplace ministry in our city. Dan is very active in the local arts community, bringing the influence of Kingdom values to the cutting edge of contemporary culture. He also interacts with city leaders on many levels as they manage the explosive growth that is taking place in the heart of our city. Toward that end, he has established Streetlight Productions, Inc., a "secular" non-profit organization that is designed to cultivate public space to promote the arts, strengthen community, and enrich downtown business. Dan also empowers Christian artists to use their artistic skills and passions to share the gospel in street and marketplace venues.

Nancy has spent many years ministering to people seeking emotional healing and spiritual freedom.

They are members of Crossroads Fellowship; Dan was an elder and former pastor at Crossroads Fellowship before founding his ministry.
