Cornerstone Fellowship Ministries aka "Street Light"

Dan and Nancy founded Cornerstone Fellowship Ministries over a decade ago and have pioneered creative church planting, street and marketplace ministry in our city. Dan is very active in the local arts community, bringing the influence of Kingdom values to the cutting edge of contemporary culture. He also interacts with city leaders on many levels as they manage the explosive growth that is taking place in the heart of our city. Toward that end, he has established Streetlight Productions, Inc., a "secular" non-profit organization that is designed to cultivate public space to promote the arts, strengthen community, and enrich downtown business. Dan also empowers Christian artists to use their artistic skills and passions to share the gospel in street and marketplace venues.

Corporate Chaplains of America

Most people do not have any relationship with a church or other organized religious group. Beliefs and personal needs take a back seat to meetings, deadlines and workplace agendas. Yet, the problems at home don't go away. They are brought, as emotional baggage, to work each day. Corporate Chaplains of America provides genuine "Caring in the Workplace" by full time, long-term, career chaplains who combine workplace experience with professional training.

Make a difference locally:

- ◆ Pray for the leaders of a ministry for one month.
- ◆ Offer to transport ministry participants to an activity.
- ◆ Have lunch delivered to the ministry staff anonymously.
- ◆ Send a note or e-mail of encouragement.
- ◆ Take a local agency a box of copy paper.
- ◆ Call and ask an agency how you can help for two hours this week.
- ◆ Deliver paper products to a residential ministry.
- ◆ Drop canned goods at a food ministry or in our collection boxes at Crossroads Fellowship.
