

Pat Teague Community Sports Chaplain

Pat Teague is our Sports Community Chaplain to private and public schools, including local universities, where our students attend. Pat will be reaching out to athletic directors, coaches and students.

The sports programs within our school systems have suffered recent budget cuts. As a result, our sports leaders for these students are discouraged. One of our goals in this ministry is to be a blessing to the leaders and students (Luke 10).

The two areas where students express their life message are through the arts and sports. In the arena of sports, students can express their values, goals and dreams. If we can reach athletes where they live they can genuinely connect with Jesus.

Pat has been a speaker for over 25 years with FCA (Fellowship of Christian Athletes) and a huddle leader throughout his high school and college days.

Pat is an ordained minister who served at a local church here in Raleigh for 13 years. A former NFL athlete, he played with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He is now happily married to Sheila and has three great children. Pat is excited about his partnership with Crossroads and launching into the mission field of sports and schools. Together we are building the Kingdom of God to impact our community and the world.

Community Chaplains is a Crossroads ministry that adopts a piece of the community to see His Kingdom come and His will be done. Could God be calling you to join us as we reach our city for Jesus?
